GETTING READY TO ENTER

To enter a piece of work multiple times, simply add the title of the entry, fill in the entry information, let us know which companies and people were involved and select all the relevant categories you wish to enter. You'll be required to submit common information that applies to all the Cannes Lions Awards and some specific information unique to the category you're entering. Don't worry – you can still edit individual entries.

FIRST TIME ENTERING CANNES LIONS?

Need help? Drop us an email at awards@canneslions.com and we'll arrange for one of our experts to talk you through the process.

DON'T HAVE ALL THE DETAILS RIGHT AWAY?

Don't worry, you can complete the form in any order and save your progress at any time.

ALL THE QUESTIONS YOU NEED TO ANSWER ARE AVAILABLE TO DOWNLOAD ON THE ENTRY SYSTEM FOR EACH INDIVIDUAL CATEGORY.

COMMON INFORMATION

ENTRY TITLE

GIVE YOUR ENTRY A TITLE

To begin, you need to give your entry a title. We need this information before you select the Cannes Lions Award and categories you'd like to enter this work into. If you're entering this work into multiple categories, the title you give here will be applied across all of those selected entries.

CHOOSE AWARD AND CATEGORIES

It's time to select the Cannes Lions Awards you'd like to enter with this piece of work. Entry limits within each Cannes Lions Award are different.

You may add, remove or edit the Awards or categories selected at a later stage before payment. You can find all the details about the Cannes Lions Awards on our website.

MULTIPLE EXECUTIONS INFORMATION

A campaign of executions is a group of entries that are linked by the same overarching creative idea. To be eligible, each entry in the campaign will promote the same product or service using the same medium. Each execution is a standalone entry and must be paid for individually. You can choose a series of 2 or more variations of the creative concept to submit as part of a campaign of executions.

*Only certain Awards and categories allow campaigns of executions. The Jury can choose to award just a single execution from the campaign, or they can choose to recognise the full series with a Campaign Award.

COMPANIES

WHICH COMPANIES WERE INVOLVED?

You are the Entrant Company and will be required to fill out your own information first. You may add as many additional companies as you wish. Each entry requires at least one 'Entrant Company' and one 'Idea Creation' company. Sometimes it will be the same company for both.

The Entrant Company is responsible for payment of entry fees and will be considered the sole contact for any entry-related queries. You should enter the companies in the order you'd like them to be published, as this is how they'll appear on your certificates.

When making your entry, please make sure you credit companies in the correct roles as this directly affects the calculations for the Special Awards.

IMPORTANT: You may be asked to return to this section to add more companies depending on the Cannes Lions Award and categories you select later (e.g. if you enter Media, you'll be asked to provide a company that played a 'Media Placement' role).

If your entry wins a Cannes Lions Award, companies and individuals credited here will automatically be eligible to purchase trophies and certificates.

You'll need to verify that this email address is a brand work email. We don't accept private or general contact details.

SUPPORTING MATERIAL GUIDELINES

Supporting materials are the most important elements of your entry. This is what the judges will examine, watch and read during their decision-making. Each Lion has different material requirements. In some cases, they're mandatory and in some, they're recommended or optional.

It's important to remember there are strict rules about adding extra information or replacing files once you've submitted your entry. Please make sure you're absolutely ready to submit before you pay. If new results are collected after the entry has been paid for, we'll only accept additional written information in the results section of the entry form before 10 April 2025.

This does not apply to entry media, e.g. case films and JPGs, which cannot be updated under any circumstances. In order to avoid your work being withdrawn from the Festival, please adhere to the following guidelines:

- All case films and presentation images must be in English.
- Work that was not originally published in English (TVCs, print ads, billboards, etc.) can be translated or subtitled exactly as it was published or aired, so that it can be understood by the English-speaking Jury.
- If translating original video work, please note that dubbing is not allowed. Voice Overs can be translated, but visible speech must be kept in the original language and subtitled.
- Supporting materials must not contain any reference to your agency or any contributing creative companies or individuals.

LABELLING AND DELIVERY GUIDELINES

Labels have individual entry numbers that are specific to your entries and are vital for us to identify your physical materials when they arrive, as they will be made available to the Jury in the latter stages of judging. If entries are lost, held up at customs or require payment for delivery, resolution is the sole responsibility of the entrant.

● Products should be insured against damage or loss in transit or on Festival premises. We don't accept any liability for any loss, damage or expense incurred.

● Physical support material becomes the property of the Festival organisers once it has been received. We cannot return materials to entrants after judging. In exceptional circumstances and at the Festival's discretion, we may agree to return large or valuable items. However, this must be pre-agreed with the Festival in writing by 15 May 2025, and all transit costs must be covered by the entrant and collection must be arranged before 31 July 2025.

TOP TIPS FOR YOUR CASE FILM

BE CONCISE

You're dealing with professionals who are perfectly capable of grasping whether a project has merit based on a concise, coherent explanation.

BE UPFRONT

Explain the idea upfront and quickly so the Jury can understand the dimensions of the campaign and its results from the very beginning. Avoid using unnecessary buildup or stylistic filler. Treat your case film like a piece of editorial. All the key information early on – expansion of the idea to follow.

TAKE A FRESH PERSPECTIVE

You may have lived and breathed the work, but the Jury hasn't. Look at the idea with a fresh pair of eyes and break it down to its core for a new audience.

MAKE IT EASY FOR THEM

The idea should speak for itself. Avoid creating barriers with unnecessary and elaborate production values. Keep it straightforward.

INDUSTRY JARGON

Avoid industry jargon and marketing speak. Don't sell – explain your work. A case film with excessive hype and empty statements will not impress the Jury.

SIMPLICITY

Less is always more. So many case films fail to communicate a clear idea and a compelling strategy that isn't cluttered and confusing. The need for focus and clarity cannot be underestimated.

CULTURE AND CONTEXT

Our Juries are international, and English is not always their first language. Respect this diversity. Entries that rely on a cultural nuance or unfamiliar cultural context should come with additional information.

TELL A STORY

Structure your explanation around a simple, powerful and succinct narrative. Storytelling is key.

CATEGORY SELECTION

Carefully consider the best category for your entry and ensure that it demonstrates both relevance and specificity for its audiences. If you're unsure where your work can go, ask an Awards expert who can give you some advice.

RESULTS

Make sure you provide them and that they are robust, meaningful and measurable. Be honest, specific and provide workable, quantitative figures and stats. In some categories, results count for 30% of the mark. Clearly link your results back to original goals, strategies and objectives.
